Diary of a Pearl Harbor Survivor - Pearl Harbor Reservations

A native son of Hawaii, Alfred Benjamin Kameeiamoku Rodrigues was on duty at Pearl Harbor the morning of December 7, 1941. He was assigned to the battleship USS Wisconsin. Rodrigues later wrote the following in his personal diary he kept during the War in the Pacific while serving onboard the battleship:

"We were on the deck and had just finished breakfast when we started hearing the buzz of airplanes. I was sitting on the edge of the deck of the battleship, thinking about how we would react if the Japanese attacked. I remember thinking, 'This is it.' It's a moment that will stay with me for the rest of my life."
